Travel...

On the issues of arrival and departure, Camp Wigwam will assist all families, when the timing is right, in providing options for airline and bus travel during the 2023 camp season.

STAY TUNED FOR UPDATES THROUGHOUT THE WINTER MONTHS.

Camp Visiting...

Indeed, if we feel as though a safe and healthy environment can be achieved, then we will hold Parent's day on Saturday, July 22nd. Details to follow. Search for accommodations on the web, in Maine for Waterford, Harrison, Bridgton, Lovell, Norway, and Bethel. Also, No. Conway, NH, offers a nice variety of rooms.

Rookie Camp...

Wigwam will be offering it's inaugural two week "rookie camp" for first year families interested in a shorter session. This will be begin on Sunday, July 23rd (just after Parent's Day) and run until Saturday, August 5th. Please feel free to share this information with any family or friends who may have interest.

Bunk Preference

If your camper has a bunk or tent preference, please be sure to e-mail those details at any time this winter.

Tutoring...

We will once again offer tutoring to any interested campers in a wide range of subjects, including, reading, math, Bar Mitzvah, computer/ keyboard skills, and language arts.

If you would like your camper(s) to take advantage of one or more of these programs, please inform us via e-mail at your convenience.

Camp News...

Be sure to visit www.campwigwam.com for Wigwam's winter reunion schedule, and news from Wigwammers around the globe.

Required Uniform...

Once again this year, Wigwam's official outfitter is Amerasport, and their digital catalogue may be found at Amerasport.com (link to Camp Wigwam). Within that catalogue are lists of required and suggested articles for your camper's upcoming season, as well as many other items (all optional) that can be useful during the summer. Many families wait until mid to late winter before ordering to ensure that their camper doesn't outgrow the clothing before opening day!

The toll free phone number for Amerasport is 800-786-9402, should you have any specific questions about sizing, nametags, delivery dates, etc.
